

MAR 29, 2018

LOCONTE & PARTNERS OPENS A NEW OFFICE IN NEW YORK

Alessandro Negri della Torre will lead the local branch.

Italian tax law firm Loconte&Partners continues its international expansion with the opening of a new office in New York, based at 350, Park Avenue.

The New York branch will be led by Alessandro Negri della Torre, a graduate in Law from Bocconi University and holder of two LL.M.s (UK and USA). He will work under the supervision of the managing partner Stefano Loconte and in coordination with the London office, led by Angela Cordasco since its opening in 2016.

“The decision to open the office in London follows the development of the firm”, stated Stefano Loconte, founder and managing partner of Loconte&Partners. “The office in New York will mainly focus on wealth management, and it will expand the international reach of the firm’s activities”.

Loconte& Partners’ Wealth Management team comprises more than 20 advisors, between lawyers and chartered accountants. It assists corporate and private clients in the preservation and in the management of their wealth. The team members have extensive expertise and provide a full range of sophisticated legal and tax-related services on national, international and cross-border issues.

Founded in 1996, Loconte& Partners is an Italian tax law firm with offices in Milan, Rome, Bari, Padua and London. The firm employs more than 40 attorneys and tax advisor and offers an international and multidisciplinary approach.