

29-03-2018

REGULATION & LAW

Loconte & Partners Opens in New York

Loconte & Partners have announced the opening of a new representative office in New York City. The office, operational from the April 3rd, will allow the firm to offer a full selection of services to all clients, especially in the area of wealth management, and further enhance the international character of all the firm's practice areas.

The development of this initiative has been entrusted to Alessandro Negri della Torre, a young Italian professional with a full Italian law degree from Università L. Bocconi and two LL.M. degrees (UK and USA), is coordinated by Stefano Loconte, working in synergy with the London office, led since its opening in July 2016 by Angela Cordasco.

Loconte & Partners is an Italian law firm with offices in Bari, Rome, Milan and Padua and London. The firm specializes in tax, trust & wealth management and provides assistance in tax litigation and M&A issues.