

6 July 2016

Angela Cordasco to lead new Loconte & Partners office in London

The Italian tax law firm Loconte & Partners opens a new office in Mayfair, London, led by managing partner Angela Cordasco.

Stefano Loconte, founding managing partner of Loconte & Partners, said: "The London office will focus on wealth management services in the UK and Italy. We believe that Brexit will generate new business opportunities for the firm."

Loconte & Partners' wealth management team comprises twenty advisers, providing legal and tax services to HNWIs.